Vano is willing to give Victor's 1950's race bike for a special cause that Victor would have liked.

We could auction it off and donate the money to Victor's charity (LAF). PC Bike has offered to hang it in their shop to advertise. Vano tells us...."Victor's track bike was made in the 50s, it belonged to a track 6 days rider named Fernando Teruzzi, he was until a few years ago the record holder for the most 6 day race wins. Victor told me that it was given to him in the 60s by Teruzzi himself after they became good friends, Victor also was racing in track events. Victor repainted it with the Italian colors years ago, he told me that the original paint was silver gray. There is a photo in Teruzzi bio. [above] He is still living in Italy."
